

Konstantin Heiermann is a finance specialist, co-founder and Managing Partner of Stableton Financial. He manages all financial matters of the company.

Prior to joining Stableton, Konstantin served as the Head of Finance of Arvato, the service department of Bertelsmann AG, in Switzerland, being responsible for the departments Finance and Operations. In addition, Konstantin worked as CFO for the Zug-based TRI Dental Implants Int. AG, managing all financial related matters including compliance, cash flows, valuations, financial modelling, due diligence and managing a global network of subsidiaries financially. Konstantin started his career as the management deputy of Arvato, where he led various optimization- and merger and acquisition projects.

Konstantin holds a degree in business administration from Munich Business School in Munich, Germany, with a specialization in finance.